EVANGELIST

Dr. J. Eldon Neihof, Sr.

Dr. J. Eldon Neihof, Sr., President Emeritus of the Kentucky Mountain Holiness Association, is a graduate of the Kentucky Mountain Bible College and Asbury College. He has served on the alumni board of Asbury College, and currently serves on the World Gospel Mission Board.

He has made two trips to Kenya, Africa, where he spoke to the students at the Kenya Highland Bible College, the staff of the Tenwek Hospital, and the pastors of the Africa Gospel Church.

He taught at the Mt. Carmel High School from 1959-1981, and was pastor there for thirteen years. He was Academic Dean of the Kentucky Mountain Bible College for six years before assuming his duties as president of the KMHA. In May of 1993 he was presented with an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Wesley Biblical Seminary in Jackson, Mississippi.

In June 2003 he retired as president of KMHA with the title of President Emeritus of the Kentucky Mountain Holiness Association and still serves the KMHA in various ways.

Dr. Neihoff continues to be used of the Lord in revivals and campmeetings.

SONG LEADERS

Vatral & Hammers

Siblings Dave and Sue Vatrál and Jim and Karen Hammer grew up singing and playing instruments. At Eastern Nazarene College, Jim and Sue met and married, Dave and Karen followed suit, and the foursome began performing together.

Today Dave and Karen Vatrál lead the music ministry for the Trail Church of the Nazarene in New Freedom, PA, where Dave is Senior Pastor, having previously served as the Youth/Associate Pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Uxbridge, MA. Karen is a homemaker and piano teacher. Dave and Karen have two sons, Chris and Caleb.

Jim and Sue Hammer sing in the choir and praise team at the Uxbridge Church of the Nazarene. Director of research and development at Shuster Laboratories in Canton, MA, Jim also plays keyboard, guitar, and drums in the church orchestra, and is the keyboard, guitarist, singer and songwriter for Crosswalk, a contemporary Christian music group that performs across the northeast. Jim also records bands and soloists in his studio, and Sue is the teaching director of Little Lambs Pre-school at the Uxbridge church. They have two daughters: Rebecca and Lauren.
